It's 4 the Kids

If you can agree to the above, we welcome you.

IF NOT, WE ASK THAT YOU PLEASE LEAVE NOW.

1. I pledge to be on time or early when dropping off my child for a practice or game. I understand that it is embarrassing for my child to be late to game or practice and that I am putting him/her at physical risk by not providing adequate time warm up. I understand the importance of picking up my child on time for all games, practice and/or sponsored – events. This shows respect for the coach, who has other time commitments, and it tells my child that he or she is my top priority. _____
2. I understand that the top three reasons kids play sports are to have fun, make new friends and learn new skills. I understand that the game is for the kids, and that I will encourage my child to have fun and keep sport in its proper perspective. I understand that athletes do their best when they are emotionally healthy, so I will be positive and supportive. _____
3. I will redefine what it is to be a “Winner” in my conversations with my child. A Winner is someone who makes maximum effort, continues to learn and improve, and does not let mistakes, or fear of making mistakes, stop them. I understand that mistakes are an inevitable part of any game and that people learn from their mistakes. I understand that all children are born with different abilities and that the true measure is not how my child compares to others but how he/her is doing comparison to his/her best self. _____
4. I will “Honor the game.” I understand the importance of setting a good example of sportsmanship to my child. No matter what others may do, I will show respect for all involved in the game including coaches, players, opponent’s fans, referees and officials. I understand that officials, referees, coaches and players make mistakes. If the referee makes a “questionable” call, I will continue to respect the individual and be silent! _____
5. I understand that games can be exciting times for my child who is trying to deal with the fast-paced action of the game, respond to opponents, referees, teammates and listen to coaches. I will not add confusion by yelling out instructions. During the game, I will limit my comments to encouraging my child and other players for both teams. _____
6. I will not make negative comments about the game, coaches, referees, officials or teammates in my child’s presence. I understand that this plants a seed, which can negatively influence my child’s motivation and overall experience. _____

I have read the above program; parent’s rules and I signed this form and agree to these terms freely and voluntarily and without inducement for myself on behalf of my child. As a parent/guardian I hereby agree to abide by the SAYS Soccer Bylaws, Rules, Regulations, policies and philosophies.
